

Sunset over St. Cuthbert's Way looking from the island

The Harbour & Castle in winter

Emanuelle Head & Bay

The Ship Inn

The Holy Island of Lindisfarne

All rooms have en-suite facilities including TV with CD/DVD

For more information & bookings, please contact

Janice or Andrew
The Ship Inn
Marygate
Holy Island
Northumberland
TD15 2SJ

Telephone 01289 389311
Facsimile 01289 389316
Email the\_ship\_inn@btconnect.com

www.theshipinn-holyisland.co.uk

Relax & Enjoy the Charm of The Holy Island of Lindisfarne

Our friendly welcoming bar area serves 7 keg ales & 2 cask ales. A lunchtime menu & evening à la carte are available. Food can be served in our bar area or lounge restaurant with full waiter service.

The inn garden where you can relax with friends & family enjoying a drink or with food served during lunchtime & evenings.

The 18th century Ship Inn is perfectly located for those seeking out Lindisfarne Castle, the harbour or the lovely 9 miles of unspoilt idyllic coastline.

Served by a 3 mile causeway, the island is cut off twice daily giving a unique charm of island life & the tranquillity enjoyed when cut off from the mainland.

The Inn is popular for walkers with Holy Island at the end of the 62.5 mile St. Cuthbert's Way.

The Ship Inn also makes an ideal base for visiting nearby Bamburgh Castle, The Farne Islands, Alnwick Castle & Gardens.

The island is perfectly located to explore Northumberland & the beautiful border country into Scotland. Berwick-upon-Tweed is 14 miles from Holy Island with Newcastle-upon-Tyne & Edinburgh approximately 65 miles away.

Our four poster bed in bedroom one.

The island's lovely unspoilt beaches & coastline are home to seals, birds & many other forms of wildlife.

